than they have been for years.

—Buy your Holiday Presents from Trimble and Goodman, 28 Whitehall street.

—The fair old benevolent home will be kept open Monday and Tuesday nights.

—Minstrel performances draw well in Atlanta.

—Scarratt is the DeCastro who visited our city last year.

—About two hundred cottages could be easily rented in Atlanta at present.

—Scarratt serves up venison for his fifteen cent lunch.

—Short profits, small expenses and cash,

keep Lynch & Thornton's book store crowded all the year through.

—Go to No. 25 Whitehall street and see the fair for the benevolent home.

—Several families of emigrants passed through the city yesterday on their way to the west.

—If you wish to give something to the poor, patronize the fair for the benevolent home, 25 Whitehall street.

—It is quite noticeable the number of Christmas cards being purchased to be given as Christmas presents.

—We call attention to Dr. T. H. Baker's advertisement of a valuable hotel for rent

at Cartersville, Ga.

—Don't buy your Christmas presents until you see the beautiful collection at Miller's silver palace, 30 Whitehall St.

—Beautiful gifts, cheaply published prices at 150, for $100. Nothing equal there, at it.
